

SHAMBHU

COMPOSER, GUITARIST, AND PRODUCER

If there is a universal language of God, then that language is music. My sole purpose in life is offering soulful, heartfelt music that reflects the bliss, joy, and sublime satisfaction I feel in my own connection with Nature and the Divine.

Music is my spirituality. It is my devotion. It is a true expression of my heart. It is the culmination of three decades studying spirituality and meditation under the guidance of spiritual teacher Sri Chinmoy. When I am flowing Spirit through a song or musical passage, it is because I feel and invoke the peace, power, and perfection of Nature itself and a spiritual Light shines on my heart and soul.

Music can be many things to many people. Like the colorful rainbow of people, cultures, religions, languages, geographies, tastes, and desires that circle our planet, Music comes in all shapes, sounds and forms, including silence.

I choose to wrap my musical expressions in Light, Peace, and Love. We are millions and billions of souls on the planet. We resonate from a cosmic Source. We are a divine harmonious interplay. If we can flow divine music, we can make the world a better place through the music of our lives.
