

The Spiritual Significance Of Music

PETER KATER

Music has an all access pass to our entire being. Through music our souls can speak to each other, communicating our deepest joys, longings, and dreams, bypassing the fears and constraints of ego, communicating directly with our hearts and souls. Music is a divine gift, given and shared so that we may truly know and love ourselves, and each other. Through music we are guided to commune with our source, our essence, and our Creator.
